

Eco homes

Our client's desire was to create a small sustainable family community in a remote clearing in Argyll.

Sustainability and remoteness were key requirements. The natural woodland would be managed as an integral part of the design.

Built from local materials with a high performance external envelope and natural source of power and heat. These family homes provide an opportunity for a sustainable lifestyle for our clients.

client

PRIVATE

cmm
ARCHITECTS