

Haran Glass

Integrating Haran's own products this project was designed specifically to fulfil their operational requirements and as a showpiece for the company on a relatively modest budget.

A complex brief is here resolved into a harmonious working environment. Whether a difficult site or an intricate set of problems CMM demonstrates here their ability to maximise the value of the design in both functional and aesthetic terms.

client

Haran Glass