

McPhail St.

A development of 65 flats for Campsie Properties involving the conversion of two Listed Buildings, new build terraces and an 8-storey tower.

This project reflects the practice's belief in using bold and simple forms with restricted palettes to achieve a quiet elegance at an affordable price. Glasgow Green exemplifies our strong belief that the careful detailing of the interfaces between materials is critical to the long-term success of a project.

client

Campsie Property

cmm
ARCHITECTS